

MICHAEL CRAWFORD

October 9, 1942 - May 12, 1988

His many friends and acquaintances in the gay community sadly mourn the recent passing of MICHAEL CRAWFORD, who succumbed to AIDS.

Co-owner of Menjo's in Detroit for the past 13 years, Michael marked this anniversary with a giant celebration in December 1987. A community leader and philanthropist, Michael was Vice President of H.E.A.D., and was also involved with St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital Fund-raising. Always Surrounded by caring friends, he embraced a true passion and flair for living. Survived by his mother, Mary, and brother, Greg, Michael's death is felt by close friends as the "end of an era."
