

John Frush

John G. Frush, 33, of Redford died in his sister's home in Redford of complications associated with AIDS on Thursday, November 18.

Frush had recently been hospitalized at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak and had been sent home for what was expected to be his final days. He died at 6:30 in the evening with his family close by.

Frush was well known in the Detroit bar scene and was known as a very sociable man.

Frush is survived by five sisters, three brothers, over twenty nieces and nephews, and many friends and acquaintances.

A Prayer service was conducted on Monday, November 22 at Charles R. Step Funeral Home in Redford and a Mass was said on that same day at St. Agatha Catholic Church also in Redford.

John G. Frush.
Cruise 11-24-93 p.8